

Residents Rally To Aid Growers Pick Mac Crop

CHIEF complaint in hundreds of homes in Kelowna and the surrounding district last night was aching arms and sore backs. But nearly all apple-pickers were back on the job this morning as growers seek to save the McIntosh crop that ripened quickly and began dropping in alarming proportions.

Response to the emergency sounded over the week-end has been such that a noticeable improvement was reported today. Classroom attendance in the city and district senior high schools is down nearly 90 per cent; stores, businesses and offices are getting along on skeleton staffs; outside workers are arriving daily—all pointing to meeting the critical situation that faced fruit ranchers.

A bus load of 20 workers arrived from Vancouver this morning to ease the situation further. More students were absent from classes this morning than at any previous time this week. Several transients, learning of the availability of orchard work, have come into the city.

Many of the transient workers have come from the Grand Forks area as has been customary every year.

NEED MORE PACKERS

More workers are needed in packing houses, it was learned this morning. Many of the plants are not working at capacity because of the lack of experienced packers.

Insufficient packers has cut down on the number of sorters and other help required, a spokesman for the National Employment Service pointed out today. The key to more employment in the packing houses hinges on more experienced packers.

"But the situation is slowly improving. The fruit is going through all right, but the volume isn't there yet," the spokesman explained.

H. C. S. Collett, placement officer for the Federal-Provincial Farm Labor Service, said there still was an acute demand for apple pickers—but the situation was improving. "I think the crisis will be over by the end of the week," he said.

BOARD CRITICAL

Mr. Collett took exception to statements attributed to the Kelowna Board of Trade that his office was not available by phone at periods during the day.

"I'd like to find out how that report originated, for it certainly is not true," Mr. Collett declared. He said his office had never been closed except during the noon hour from Vancouver this morning to ease the situation further.

At Tuesday's weekly meeting of the KFT executive, the handling of this morning's crisis was criticized.

The board has advocated for at least a year that the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association get behind the yearly problem and arrange for a switchboard to be open day and night.

Spokesmen contended that a local labor pool could be built up that would be able to cope with the situation in future years. If local people go picking two or three weeks each year, in time they become experienced pickers who could handle just about any emergency.

Most important, the board feels, is getting the average citizen to realize that this year's crisis is a million-dollar one that affects every single person in the Central Okanagan.

STUDENTS ON LEAVE

Students were officially released with leave of absence this week. They are expected back when the emergency is over.

At Kelowna Senior High School yesterday there were only 99 pupils out of an enrollment of 450. W. J. Logie, senior high principal, said school authorities "were resigned" to the state of affairs at the present time.

He believed the majority of students would be glad to get back to their classes as "apple picking is a strenuous job."

GUEST SPEAKER

O. L. Jones, M.P., will be guest speaker at the Kelowna Board of Trade general meeting, to be held Thursday, Sept. 25.

EDITORIAL

Critical Period

Once more an urgent appeal is being made for pickers to harvest the Okanagan's famous McIntosh apple crop, and once more orchardists are in a dilemma as to where the help is coming from.

This crisis seems to develop every year, especially when there is a huge crop in sight. But this year, the situation is really desperate. In fact a board of trade spokesman has termed it a $1,000,000 emergency.

With harvesting operations only entering high gear, the shortage will be felt more keenly within the next three days or a week. Due to a comparatively dry year, some growers already report a heavy apple drop, and should there be high winds within the next two weeks, orchardists will suffer a tremendous loss.

There has been some criticism over lack of preparedness on the part of those responsible for recruiting sufficient help, but this is no time for petty arguing. The crop is ripe. It has to be picked. So let's make the best of a bad situation and forget our differences for the time being. It is only through mutual co-operation of business men, growers and private individuals that the emergency will be averted.

Last year the Kelowna Board of Trade went on record favoring a round-table conference with farm labor placement officers to try and work out some sort of a system whereby a labor pool could be built up in apple picking areas. Apparently several concrete suggestions came out of these committee meetings and they have been acted upon.

But it all boils down to the question: Should growers depend upon transient labor?

Mengre success in recruiting sufficient harvest help in by-gone years would seem to point to the necessity of depending upon local residents for harvesting the bulk of the crop. Granted it takes time to become an experienced apple picker, and a novice has got to make a start some time. This has been proven among school children who went to the fields for the first time one or two years ago.

Actually the whole matter is the responsibility of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association. If they are not satisfied with the way the various farm placement offices in the valley are operated, they should say so. Perhaps the hours of the farm placement offices should be extended. Perhaps additional help should be obtained to handle the number of recruits obtained for picking. These and other matters should be carefully investigated. But the situation should not be allowed to remain stagnant until a week or so before a picking crisis approaches.

Whatever the pros and cons of the situation may be, the solution seems to lie in obtaining local help. If a labor pool could be built up of Kelowna citizens—who in the long run would suffer if the crop is lost—then they could rally to the aid of the fruit grower when the emergency arises.

It is of little use walking down city streets at the eleventh hour and begging business men to release their employees to pick apples. Given ample time to plan accordingly, we are sure a businessman would juggle his staff to meet the situation. But it's unfair to make this request at the last minute.

CANADIANS will soon see houses marked "Made in Britain" erected on Canadian soil. Twenty-eight of the prefabricated, frame structures are already marked for shipment here. Top shows the completed house, a simple five-roomed bungalow set on a slab of concrete. In a demonstration of assembling the bungalow, above, 10 men completed the job in eight hours as David Eccles, minister of works, timed the operation.

Kelowna Will Send Strong Crew To PNW Rowing Event

ONLY one of the city's five B.C. champions will be carrying the Kelowna Rowing Club banner in the Pacific Northwest sculling events at Penticton Saturday.

He is Ray Bostock, member of both the doubles and fours teams that copied provincial laurels at Vancouver this year. With a personally-purchased shell, he will compete in the PNW junior singles.

The KRC senior doubles and port. A club spokesman also disclosed plans to purchase an eight-shell so that training for the British Empire Games rowing events of 1954 can begin next spring.

Late this morning KRC president Jack Weddell said another auto was needed to help transport the crews to Penticton Friday night. Anyone who can help can call him at 2358 or 3312.

WANT MORAL SUPPORT

After weeks of intensive drilling, the crews are reported in fighting trim and confident of making a good showing against oarsmen from Nelson, Penticton, Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle. Penticton officials are looking for competitors from Tacoma and Portland also to make it a truly international affair. Kelowna Rowing Clubbers have appealed to the public to come to Skaha Lake for their moral support.

284 HOUSES APPRAISED IN AUGUST

Total of 284 houses were appraised last month, according to city assessor, J. E. Markle. This now brings the total appraisals to 2,008. It was indicated the re-assessment will be completed by the end of the year.

Tribute To Pioneers

60th Anniversary of Benvoulin Church Marked By Service and Birthday Party

Sixtieth anniversary of Benvoulin United Church was observed this week at which time oldtimers of the district vividly recalled the dedication service conducted in 1892 by Rev. Thomas Summerville, D.D., of Glasgow, Scotland, who was visiting the Okanagan that year.

To mark the special occasion, a huge birthday cake, complete with 60 lighted candles, was cut by one of the early settlers of the district, Mrs. Alex Reid, when scores of people from the Central Okanagan attended a social gathering last Monday. Tribute was paid to the pioneers of the district who helped in the construction of the church and other members of the congregation who have carried on down through the years.

The new minister of Benvoulin United Church, Rev. P. H. Mallett, conducted last Sunday's anniversary service which was attended by 150 members and friends. Rev. J. A. Petrie read the scripture lesson and Rev. Alan Pound, of Naramata, led in prayers. Both were former ministers of the congregation.

Guest soloist was Mrs. Harold Glenn, while the Rutland choir was in attendance with Kermit Eutin at the organ.

NAMED BETHEL

The late Mrs. Robert Munson, one of the early settlers of the district, originally named the church Bethel when it was dedicated on September 11, 1892 by Rev. T. Summerville. After Rev. Summerville returned to his home in Scotland, he sent a Bible to the church. It is still in use today.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen, who then resided on the Gulsachan Ranch, encouraged and contributed to the erection of the building which was planned to resemble Crathie Church in Scotland. There is a picture of Crathie Church in (Turn to Page 8, Story 1)

Advertisements Feature Local Jet Pilot

A Kelowna youth's smiling features have been hitting prominent spots in newspapers and periodicals of late—all through courtesy of the Royal Canadian Air Force.

But the trouble, as far as Orchard City boosters are concerned, is that the jet pilot in the large, sometimes colored, advertisements has not been identified.

However a host of friends in Kelowna and elsewhere at once recognize the young pilot as "Pudge" Marshall—officially known as Flying Officer L. N. Marshall of 416 Squadron, RCAF.

Just two weeks ago The Kelowna Courier carried a front page story about "Pudge" being home on leave prior to pulling out for France where his squadron will be based for the next two years. He is the son of Mrs. A. Rowe, Bankhead.

Winner of a proficiency award while training at Gimli, Man., F/O Marshall since these days has been posted at Macdonald, Man., Chatham, N.B., and Ottawa. It was at Ottawa's Rockcliffe air field that he got the greatest thrill-sensation of his life—flying the Sabre jet planes.

CHIEF CAUSES FALSE ALARM!

Fire Chief Fred Gore was a pretty embarrassed fireman last month. He caused the brigade to go out on a false alarm.

The veteran firefighter, in submitting the monthly fire report to City Council Monday night, stated there were only two false alarms, but he caused one of them while carrying out his monthly tests.

When the alarm box door was opened the signal was grounded, the chief explained. The fault has since been repaired.

Other highlights of the chief's report revealed that 82 buildings were inspected for fire hazards and twelve requests made for the removal of same. Seventeen permits were issued for rock gas systems; three for oil burners and one for the relocation of service station pumps. All told the brigade responded to six alarms.

The chief, along with deputy fire chief Charles Pettman attended the annual fire chiefs' convention held recently in Vancouver.

FIRST AID STATION

S. M. Simpson Co. Ltd., was granted permission by City Council Monday night to renovate a building at 852 Guy Street in order that provision can be made for a first aid station.

Up to the end of last month, 47,029 percent of taxpayers had filed tax returns, compared with 39.91 percent in 1951. In terms of dollars and cents, this amounted to $191,657.50 in 1952 and $155,974.81 last year.

From September 1 to October 21, taxes are payable at par, but after the October 21 deadline, a ten per cent penalty is charged.

Other eight-month figures revealed that the number of trade licences issued were down to 989 from 1,052 last year; trade licence fees totalled $23,510 compared with $24,200 in 1951, while professional licence fees were down $100 from $1,720.

Special meeting of the three executive bodies was held recently in an effort to acquaint one another with the problems facing the hockey club executive insofar as being a formidable team is concerned.

Every effort is being made to place senior hockey on a sound basis, and for this reason it was thought that certain concessions should be made this year. However, even under the new arrangement, hockey officials will be working with a tight budget in view of high-priced players being obtained by other centres in the Okanagan-Mainline Hockey League.

On possible additional gate receipts before the end of the league, the hockey team will take 80 per cent. After the league season of 27 games, split will be 25 percent to the arena and 75 percent to the hockey team in league playoffs.

Details of the new agreement were released by Mayor J. J. Ladd at Monday night's council meeting. It was agreed that from the first $20,000 net gate receipts, the arena will take $1,000 and the hockey club $19,000. The hockey club will take the next $2,000 in gate receipts, after which the arena commission gets $2,310.

Five parcels of land were appraised up at a public auction sale held at the City Hall recently. However only three people turned up for the sale of tax delinquent property.

In reply to a question by one alderman, city treasurer Doug Herbert stated the tax sale is formally advertised. In all cases, full value of the property, or better, was received.

Tree Fruits Fighting For Export Markets

SHORT apple crop in Eastern Canada and the United States, coupled with the U.S. department of agriculture lifting the $1.25 per box subsidy on export shipments, will assist B.C. Tree Fruits in disposing of the Okanagan Valley's 7,000,000 box apple crop.

According to A. K. Loyd, president and general manager of the growers' selling agency, McIntosh apples already are in demand in eastern markets, particularly Quebec. Carload shipments left today for the Manitoba market, and before the end of the week, apples will be shipped in volume to Saskatchewan and Alberta markets.

While Okanagan growers will benefit through the lifting of the U.S. subsidy, any hope of apples being exported to the United Kingdom is virtually "out," Mr. Loyd stated. Every effort has been made to re-open the U.K. market, but negotiations to date have not been successful.

Last year, the U.K. took around 1,000,000 boxes of Okanagan apples. Mr. Loyd quoted one Ottawa authority as saying "if they (Great Britain) can't afford to import cheese, apples are definitely out of the question."

Tree Fruits' officials are now in the midst of negotiating export shipments to countries, which, due to the $1.25 U.S. subsidy, have been closed to the Okanagan. While Eastern Canada is anticipating a short crop, recent figures showed the U.S. crop is estimated at 99 million bushels, compared with 113 million bushels last year.

PEACH CROP

Mr. Loyd revealed that 94 per cent of the estimated peach crop has been sold. This amounts to 827,799 boxes which went to the fresh fruit market, and 3,516½ tons to the canneries. Most of the canneries took the amount that was contracted. While the peach season is rapidly coming to a close, Tree Fruits hopes to dispose of the balance of the crop. Demand has slackened considerably during recent days, although movements have been steady.

There have been few peach imports from the State of Washington during the past few days, but Ontario peaches are still being shipped as far west as Manitoba. FOB prices in Ontario have shown no improvement. This was due to the heat wave which blanketed the Niagara peninsula.

Each year of prune orders have now been filled, and the market is steady with demand good. Up to last night, slightly over two-thirds of the estimate crop had been shipped.

The spring-planted onion deal opened today with straight canners going to practically every jobbing centre in Western Canada.

Mr. Loyd said the new hand-pick apple container is meeting with the approval of consumers, particularly in Vancouver. Opening sales of McIntosh apples in Eastern Canada compare favorably with last year.

CAR SHIPMENTS

Total of 3,280 cars of fruits and vegetables have been shipped from the Okanagan to date. This compares with 3,033 in 1951 and 2,162 in 1950.

Tax Pre-Payments Increased $35,883

MORE people took advantage of the tax pre-payment discount offer this year, than in 1951, according to City Treasurer Doug Herbert. Discount of four per cent was allowed by the city on tax prepayments between January 1 and August 31.

Up to the end of last month, 47,029 percent of taxpayers had filed tax returns, compared with 39.91 percent in 1951. In terms of dollars and cents, this amounted to $191,657.50 in 1952 and $155,974.81 last year.

Reach Agreement Over Split In Puck Receipts

NEGOTIATIONS between the City Council, arena commission and executive of the Kelowna Hockey Club in connection with share of gate receipts from the 1952-53 senior hockey season, have been successfully concluded.

Special meeting of the three executive bodies was held recently in an effort to acquaint one another with the problems facing the hockey club executive insofar as being a formidable team is concerned.

Every effort is being made to place senior hockey on a sound basis, and for this reason it was thought that certain concessions should be made this year. BOOSTER CLUB PLANS MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT

A meeting, open to all hockey boosters in Kelowna and district, has been called for tomorrow, Friday night, at 8:00 o'clock in the city hall committee rooms.

A committee comprised of Rhys Lewis, Denny Reid, Doug Johnson and Ed Boyd, has made considerable progress since the initial meeting a week ago.

Heifer Killed, Car Damaged in Collision

A heifer belonging to a Benvoulin farmer was killed and a Vancouver auto damaged to the extent of $200 in a collision one mile south of the Westside ferry wharf Monday night.

Owner of the heifer was A. B. Fisher. John James Curran of Vancouver was the driver of the car. Royal Canadian Mounted Police said the heifer was on a rangeland on the west side of the lake.

HEALTH CENTRE WORK AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

Construction of the new medical health centre for the South Okanagan Health Unit is coming along to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Ald. Bob Knox informed City Council Monday night.

Mr. Knox stated the contractor is ahead of schedule, and the building should be turned over to the sub-contractors within the near future. It is hoped to have it completed by early December.

Do You Know?

1 That we are so proud of our meats that at any time of the day you may ask any of our butchers to show you through our meat coolers. We don't care when you ask because they always sparkle with cleanliness... so you can never embarrass us. Even if you can't afford to buy it it's nice to gaze longingly at a few thousand dollars of the stuff.

2 We're dashed proud of our cheese selection—We have been told by those who know that we have the best display and the biggest variety outside of Vancouver. You'll find everything from the "fuh-bery" mild to that "awful" Oka cheese.

3 Let's discuss peaches. We know every one is giving every one some sort of fruit out of the back yard—some good and often some bad. Some pay too much... a few get a bargain. But we're still determined to sell peaches and we sell government-graded fancy peaches in nice little crates and if there is the least thing you don't like about them... throw them away or bring them back and we'll give you your money back.

Charles Bruce Installed President Kinsmen Club

CHARLES BRUCE was installed as president of the Kelowna Kinsmen Club at the annual installation banquet and dance held last week at the Canadian Legion Hall. Installation officer was deputy district governor Dave Warner, of Field.

Other officers installed were Al Byers, 1st vice-president; Murray Cowie, 2nd vice-president; Howard Woinoski, secretary; Bob Koenig, treasurer; Alex Taylor, registrar; Cedric Stringer, Walt Green, Hugh Farrell, directors.

Retiring president Dr. Bruce presented a cheque of $250 to the Kinsmen for hospital work.

Deputy district governor Warner also installed the new Kinsmen executive which includes: President, Mrs. C. Harris; vice-president, Mrs. C. Stringer; secretary, Mrs. K. Carlson; treasurer, Mrs. A. Sladen.

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of the Haddad Merit Trophy to Al Byers. The trophy is presented to the Kinsmen, who in the opinion of a committee, had contributed the most to further Kinsmanship during the past year.

One Of Canada's Finest Swimmers, Leo Portelance Believed Drowned

One of Canada's finest all-round swimmers and a frequent contestant at Kelowna Regattas is believed to have become victim of the water he loved so much and in which he seemed to be so much at home.

Feared drowned near Powell River is Leo Portelance, 21, from the famed upcoast swim town of Ocean Falls. He was holidaying at Powell River prior to his return to the University of Oregon where he had won an athletic scholarship. He was a freshman at U of O last year.

Portelance was last seen in mid-afternoon Sunday when he set out in a smaller sailboat. An hour later a Douglas Bay resident heard cries for help and through his binoculars he spotted a figure in the water. But before he could get to the person in distress he disappeared under the water.

BEREAVED HERE

Authorities believe the person in the water was Portelance. Search is continuing for the sailboat. Leo and his brother Jim are well-known in Kelowna and the news of his possible death has saddened his friends here. Both the Portelances were top stars in the Regattas.

Leo, the older of the two, has broken six Canadian records, at least, during his life. He was on the Canadian team at the British Empire Games in New Zealand in 1950 and at the Olympics in Helsinki just this year.

LOCAL DELEGATES

A meeting of the Okanagan-Mainline Associated Boards of Trade will be held in Enderby on October 30. J. I. Monteith is past president. Kelowna Board of Trade will be well represented at the get-together.

FIND LOCAL WOMAN DIED 25 YEARS AGO

Within a few hours after last Thursday's Courier appeared on the streets, several people telephoned the newspaper office volunteering information pertaining to the whereabouts of Mrs. Christian Lanzendorfer.

The Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, has been conducting an intensive six-months search for the woman, who was the beneficiary of a small life insurance policy.

Apparently Mrs. Lanzendorfer died about 25 years ago, after living for several years on Richter Street, near Cawston Avenue. She was buried in the Kelowna cemetery.

KINSMEN SKATING BEGINS SUNDAY

Sunday skating sessions, sponsored by the Kelowna Kinsmen Club, will resume this Sabbath evening—the earliest since the skating club began to operate.

Each year the attendance has been dropping and there is a large group of adults in the city and district who find time heavy Sunday nights.

Membership cards for the season went on sale this week. Blue laws prohibit sales of admission tickets on Sunday. They must be bought beforehand.

FRED DAY GETS FIRST DEER OF SEASON

Honor of felling the first deer of the 1952 season apparently goes to Fred Day, of East Kelowna.

He was not available for comment this morning, but it is known he showed up at the local frozen lockers with a buck first thing Tuesday morning. The season opened Monday morning.

Three others turned bucks into the lockers Tuesday and one more was added yesterday by Caesar Burns. The others belong to E. Dunlop, Okanagan Mission, J. M. Burns, R.R. 4, and T. S. Hughes, Rutland.

MUST VACATE

City Council has informed Frank Dibala, 552 Gaston Avenue, that he must vacate the city-owned residence at the Exhibition Grounds within 30 days.

CHALLENGE GAME SUNDAY

Pentiction Athletics, OMBL champions, have accepted the challenge of Kamloops Okonots, ECIBL title-holders for the interior baseball championship. The game may be played this Sunday.

Two Well-Known Local Residents Pass Away

Two long-time and well-known residents of the city and district were called by death this week.

Thomas Morrison, 62, late of the Vernon district, but who lived in this area most of the time since leaving his native Scotland 57 years ago, died suddenly from a heart ailment Monday at Six Mile Creek (near Vernon) where he was employed in the logging business.

Mrs. Jane McVey, Bennett, 64, wife of A. C. Bennett, 1040 Harvey Avenue, died this morning in hospital here after a residence in the city of 42 years.

The late Mr. Morrison was only five years of age when he first saw this district, coming here with his father and mother in 1895. His father managed the Guisachan Ranch for Lord and Lady Aberdeen.

FUNERAL FRIDAY
The deceased farmed near Rutland for many years before turning to the lumbering industry. Last rites will be held Friday at 2:30 p.m. from the chapel of Day's Funeral Service, Rev. P. H. Mallett, of Rutland United Church officiating. Interment will be in Kelowna cemetery.

Surviving are one son, Jack, Rutland, and one brother, John, Kelowna. Five granddaughters also are left.

HERE SINCE 1910
The late Mrs. Bennett also was born in Scotland coming directly to Kelowna after her marriage. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her, having resided here continually since 1910.

Funeral arrangements at press time still were incomplete and will be announced later by Day's Funeral Service Ltd. Fall-bearers will be members of her own family.

Besides her husband, Alexander, Cormack Bennett, she leaves three sons and four daughters, Alex, Ian and Wallace, all of Kelowna; Mrs. H. (Margaret) Hoffman, Vancouver; Mrs. S. (Betty) Hill, Vernon; Mrs. A. (Lillian) Neal, Kelowna, and Jean, also of Kelowna. Fourteen grandchildren also are survivors.

Real lives are built much by degrees.
Nor is it done, my friends with ease,
Sometimes the climb is hard and long
To reach the heights where we belong.
When climbing up life's rugged way
We need to watch our step each day,
For one misstep may prove to be
A change in our eternity.

Nimrods Certain Of An Open Season For Pheasants, Quail

CHANCES are bright that nimrods will have a longer pheasant season than last year.

This came to light at a special meeting of the Interior Fish and Game Association executive with Game Commissioner James Cunningham and Game Department staff members.

Scientific surveys showed there were plenty of cocks in the Okanagan, according to Pat Martin, department biologist for this game district, stationed at Kamloops. He therefore recommended an open season from October 18 to November 9 (24 days). His recommendation was approved unanimously by the association. Limit recommended was two daily and 10 for the season.

In addressing the meeting, Mr. Martin pointed out there was no use trying to carry too many pheasants during the winter as there was insufficient food and cover against the cold. They would only die anyhow.

The meeting debated the recommendation for a while but finally got right behind it. Mr. Martin also pointed there might be a lengthening of the duck season yet, but such a move would be up to Ottawa.

The association's suggestion now goes to the Game Department to become official. Unless something extenuating crops up, it will likely be proclaimed law before the end of the month.

CHANGE GAME ACT
No open dates on pheasants, California quail or European partridges were given out at the time the 1952-53 game regulations were released. The department stated it was waiting for results of scientific surveys.

It is presumed that California quail and European partridge will be opened for the same time as pheasants.

Mr. Martin also indicated hopes there would be more deer and moose allowed. He said biologists have found that moose and deer herds are too large in some districts and owing to the lack of feed many will die, particularly does and fawns.

He thought it advisable to have an open season on hornless deer in the over-populated areas. However this would require a change in the Game Act and this may not be done until the next Legislature is called, ruling out chance of a doe and cow season this autumn.

The meeting also learned that the fish camp licence recently granted for Oyama Lake had been suspended until a full scientific survey is made. Kelowna and District Rod and Gun Club protested vigorously when it learned a licence had been issued.

The IFGA executive consists of presidents of the clubs in the Okanagan-Interior. A. Krollner of Oliver is president; Jim Laidlaw, Penticton, is secretary.

OFFICIAL OPENING

KAMLOOPS—Seventy-five men and 37 women took part in the competitions marking the official opening of the new golf course here. Kelowna's Monk Steele had low gross.

This advertisement is not published or edited by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia.

Penticton Team Taken Into Big Four League

Penticton's bid for entry in the Junior Big Four Football League at Vancouver was accepted over the week-end, making it a five-team loop.

The Scarlet Marauders will have four home games and make return trips to the Coast. Other teams in the league are North Shore Lions, CYO, Meralomas and Blue Bombers.

Season Hockey Tickets Go On Sale Next Monday

SEASON hockey tickets will go on sale at the Kelowna and District Memorial Arena next Monday. This was decided at a special meeting of the Kelowna Senior Hockey Association executive which met with Percy Downton, arena manager Tuesday afternoon.

Hockey season officially gets underway on October 18, when Kelowna Packers meet Kamloops Elks. In order to encourage sale of tickets, it has been decided to give a discount of ten percent to season ticket holders. There are 27 home games.

Packer Backers will save $2.70 if they purchase the season ticket outright, or if they prefer to buy them on the instalment plan, they will pay $7 for each of the first three quarters, and only $4 for the last quarter.

Mail orders will be received from those unable to get to the arena, according to Mr. Downton.

A major drive is planned to boost the sale of season tickets.

Nut House Out of World Tournament

Vancouver Nut House nine were spilled early this week from the world tournament for women's softball supremacy when they dropped their second game. They were trounced 20-0 in their first by last year's champions.

On the Nut House squad are former Rutland pitcher Ethel Ramsey and ex-Kelowna infielders Alwilda and June Minette.

MORE SPORT WILL BE FOUND ON PAGE SIX OF THE SECOND SECTION.

Whole Scale of B.C. Amateur Puck Will Be Reviewed at Vernon Parley

Annual convention of the B.C. Amateur Hockey Association comes to the Okanagan for the second time in three years with Vernon hosting the two-day conference Saturday and Sunday. The BCAHA parley was in Kelowna in 1950 (in Victoria last year).

The whole scale of amateur hockey in the province will be under review and plans approved in the hopes of correcting situations and improving setups. This includes senior A hockey down to bantam.

Minor hockey representatives are expected to bid for larger grants for playoffs to foster more interest in the various categories.

Future of senior hockey at the Coast will also be discussed, though chances of inter-league play are remote, but the OSAHL and WJHL having gone on record as opposed.

CENSURE BCAHA
Nanaimo and Kerrisdale already, in effect, have censured the BCAHA for showing no interest in senior hockey at the Coast. There is a possibility the delegates from the two arenas may come up with some revolutionary plan but opinion generally is that Nanaimo and Kerrisdale will revert to the Coy Cup brand (intermediate hockey).

Also under review will be the pay scale for referees, having in mind the "strike" during the Savage Cup final last Spring when Kootenay referees refused to arbitrate unless they got more money.

It was learned at this summer's Canadian Amateur Hockey Association convention that referees in B.C. senior hockey are being paid more than anywhere else except in Quebec.

Also on the agenda is election of officers. Dr. Larry Giovando of Nanaimo was elected president last year.

WANT TAX ABOLISHED
Dr. Mel Butler of Kelowna, second vice-president, said a proposal to approach the Provincial Government on abolishment of amusement tax on amateur hockey games would come up at the meeting.

He felt that travelling professional productions and entertainers should be taxed, but community efforts should be tax-free.

Spokane's bid for complete membership in the BCAHA will also be discussed. Spokane would be eligible for Allan Cup playoffs if allowed into the provincial organization.

FIRST PERFECT IN 4 DECADES

Word is probably circulating among the deer herds on the mountain tops to be wary of Dead-Eye Dan Hill.

The local sharpshooter did something Sunday that hasn't been done for 40 years, according to officials of the Kelowna B.C.D. Rifle Association. He scored a possible 103 on the three ranges.

His perfect also was the first on the club's Glenmore Range. Last possible score locally in the memory of ardent targetmen was that of J. L. Mougens on the Knox Mountain range in 1912. The year before, Jack Conway, still a resident of the city, made a possible 103, also on Knox Mountain.

DRAW FOR LADIES' MONTHLY MEDAL

Tuesday's weekly outing for the ladies' section, Kelowna Golf Club, will be the monthly medal round. Here is the draw:

10:30 a.m.—M. Downton, J. Underhill, D. Secord; 10:35—K. Buckland, R. Oliver, M. Roadhouse; 10:40—J. Faulkner, E. Lander, T. Owen; 10:45—G. Kerry, M. Walker, M. De-

Mara; 10:50—L. Thomas, B. Fray, H. Burkholder; 10:55—M. Hinton, M. Willows, F. Evans; 11:00—A. McClelland, I. Ker, A. de Puyffer; 11:05—G. Cran, U. Miller, K. Currell.

(Nine holes)—1:00 p.m.—A. Malle, B. McGill, M. Duggan; 1:05—G. Parker, R. Brown, B. Jackson; 3:30—H. Shirreff, N. Gale.

RETURNS HOME

KAMLOOPS—John Brkich, who spent the season pitching with Iola, Kansas, a farm club of New York Yankees, has returned home for the winter.

Lindsay; publication, Mrs. F. H. Watson; social, Mrs. C. R. Downing, Mrs. Flaig and Mrs. S. Loney. Also acting on the executive will be J. Logie, principal of the Senior High School, E. Bunce, principal of the Junior High; R. E. Flower, C. Larson, Mrs. J. H. Steward and Mrs. J. Burnstill. A secretary has not yet been appointed.

It was decided the P.T.A. would convene the third Tuesday of every month. Membership fee to the P.T.A. is one dollar per family, which includes a subscription to the P.T.A. magazine.

Kelowna representative to the P.T.A. Border Conference at Okanagan, Wash., Oct. 4, is Mrs. J. H. Steward.

Speaker, J. Billyeald, of the teaching staff of School District 23, gave an address on "Mental Health Movement" and spoke of his hopes for bringing about greater co-operation between the home, the school and other community resources for the benefit of the child.

Last year Mr. Billyeald took a course in mental health at the University of Toronto.

A "Get Acquainted" hour followed.

Walrod sang "Bless This House," accompanied by Miss Hetty Sewal, who also played piano interludes during the afternoon.

Among the guests was the groom's great uncle, Mr. Phillip DuMoulin. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. D. Booth, Penikese; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. DuMoulin and Susan and Tony, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Fisher and Mrs. Guy Fisher, Summerland; Mrs. Powne and Miss Maggie Powne, Portland, Ore. and Mr. E. H. Weddell of Vancouver.

For travelling, the bride donned a worsted suit of blue-grey styled with a double-breasted fitted jacket. The straight skirt had a kick-pleat in back. Her hat was a Paris original of rust feathers, closely hugging her head, to match her rust bag. Her shoes and gloves were navy blue and she wore a corsage of Copeland's Copper chrysanthemums.

After their honeymoon by car to coastal points, Mr. and Mrs. Brian Weddell will take up residence in Vancouver where the groom will attend UBC.

During the reception, Mr. R. P. Weddell, bride's brother, presided at the urns were Mrs. A. Weddell, Mrs. R. T. DuMoulin, Mrs. E. M. Carruthers, Mrs. Grote Stirling, Mrs. A. MR. AND MRS. BRIAN C. WEDDELL

A wedding of wide interest was solemnized at St. Michael and All Angels' Church on Saturday, September 13, at 2:30 p.m. when Rev. R. W. S. Brown united in marriage Verna Doreen, youngest daughter of Mr. E. A. Thompson, of Port William, and Brian Coryell, youngest son of Mr. E. C. Weddell, Q.C. and Mrs. Weddell, 1836 Pendozi Street.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Roy Thompson, the bride entered the church to the strains of the bridal march from Lohengrin played by Mr. E. P. Prichard. The slender, brunette bride chose for her gown white nylon net and Chantilly lace posed over satin. The closely-fitted bodice featured a Peter Pan collar encrusted with sequins and seed pearls, a lace key-hole cut to the satin sweetheart neckline and a row of tiny self buttons to the waist. The sleeves were long and puffed, of nylon net, closing tightly at the wrist. A cape effect of Chantilly lace set into the bodice formed a peplum at the waist, over the full length bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of tulle was held by two rhinestone clasps, one on either side. For her cascade bouquet the bride carried deep golden roses.

Attendants were the bride's former classmates, Miss Beth Niblock, maid of honor; Miss Jessica Loeck and Miss Lorraine White, bridesmaids, and flower girls were Miss Susan DuMoulin of Vancouver and Miss Sally Clayton.

Miss Niblock was gowned in apple green dotted net over white satin and crinoline, the strapless bodice with the horseshoe neckline topped by redingote of matching green tulle, and styled with a ballerina length bouffant skirt. With it she wore a floral wreath of gladioli.

Bridesmaids, Miss Jessica Loeck and Miss Lorraine White, wore identical gowns in pale yellow and peach respectively and they wore floral wreaths of gladioli in their hair. The attendants carried small shower bouquets of blended gladioli flowers to match their dress.

The little flower girls were clad in ballerina length crinolined gowns of peach dotted net over satin and styled with Peter Pan collars and short puffed sleeves. Wide satin sashes around their waists tied in a peach bow in back and they wore matching satin head bands. To match their ensembles, they carried baskets of miniature mauve gladioli and delphiniums.

Mr. Fred Turner was groomsmen and ushering the guests were Mr. Jack Weddell, the groom's cousin; Mr. Ted Weddell of Vancouver, the groom's brother and Mr. Ray Clayton. Peach gladioli in baskets and blossoms with white satin ribbon on each pew decorated the church for the occasion. Decorations were by Mrs. M. M. Coubrough, assisted by Mrs. M. Read, Mrs. A. Treadgold and Mrs. J. H. Drinkwater. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Ken Harding sang the "Lord's Prayer." Her corsage was of orchid gladioli.

The reception was held on the lawn at the home of the groom's parents where the bride and groom, the groom's parents, Mr. Roy Thompson, the bride's attendants and the best man received more than 400 guests.

Mrs. Weddell wore a dress of grey silk which was accessorized with navy blue. Her corsage was of sunset roses. The groom's grandmother, Mrs. K. F. Bliss, chose a black dress which she complemented with a brocade silk black and white shawl and a black velvet hat. She wore white sweetpeas and carnations on corsage.

Mr. J. H. Panton proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded and Mr. Turner, groomsmen, proposed a toast to the bridesmaids. Major-General R. F. Le. Keller proposed a toast to Mrs. Weddell, the groom's mother. Telegrams of congratulations were read from guests unable to be present at the wedding.

Flanking the four-tiered wedding cake were four silver vases of roses and roses and heather from the bride's bouquet topped the cake. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. A. Weddell, Mrs. R. T. DuMoulin, Mrs. E. M. Carruthers, Mrs. Grote Stirling, Mrs. A. Cameron and Mrs. Nora Loeck. Servitors were Miss Deanna Shelby, Miss Helen Murdoch, Miss Elaine Jantz, Miss Angie Zibinoff, Miss Carol Gray, Miss Emma Loeck, Miss Ethel Herbert, Miss Yvonne Saurier, Miss Audrey Turner, Miss Barbara Edwards, Miss Agatha Flegel, Miss May Jenaway, Miss Carol Curtis, Miss Jean Francescutti, Miss Mary White, Miss Bernice Brooks, Miss Elaine Gjerd, Miss Maggie Powne and Mrs. Gilbert Arnold.

I've been neglecting SHOP TALK lately—but here I am back again with a few newsy items from the stores and some good tips on thrifty spending from dietitian Peggy Dillabough. I've noticed lately that, when news from Peggy is missing from the column, I get howls of protest from my readers. It's nice to know that her sane, sound and down-to-earth advice on food marketing has become a popular feature. Wise food budgeting is a BIG problem with today's homemaker and apparently Peggy's tips are followed faithfully by many Shop Talk readers.

Let's start our shopping tour today with a visit to GANT'S PHARMACY... the brand new drug store right next to Super-Valu. This is a completely modern, fully stocked pharmacy, with its own dispensary... and, in this convenient spot, it's a welcome new addition to Kelowna's main street.

Seems there's a certain misconception about... one that I'll try to clear up here and now! Some Kelowna shoppers have the mistaken idea that Physicians Prescription Pharmacy has simply moved its location. Not at all! Physicians Prescription Pharmacy is still the same busy spot on Pendozi St. GANT'S PHARMACY is a completely new drug store, operating as a branch of Physicians Prescription Pharmacy. The "Welcome Mat" is out and Benny invites you to drop in, at your convenience, when you're shopping at Super-Valu and using the big, free parking lot there.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! I've got glad tidings today about a giant fall food sale at SUPER-VALU. This huge two-day food sale—Friday and Saturday only—can mean a saving of many dollars to you. Prices have been slashed throughout the store, with amazing savings to be found in every department. Weeks of planning... of combing the markets, of shrewd buying... have gone into this sale. I urge you to check the two pages of valu-packed specials listed in the Courier today. You can stock up on staples, like soap and canned goods, for months ahead. You can buy your canning supplies now, at huge savings. Even meat prices, which are climbing sky high all over the province, were pared to an absolute minimum to bring you these remarkable specials. And do see that amazing offer of all-a-chance to get the 1951 edition of the American International Encyclopedia at just a fraction of its regular cost. Only a great store like SUPER-VALU could bring you specials like these. So hurry, hurry, hurry down town tomorrow... and follow the crowd to SUPER-VALU.

Have you noticed how a millinery shop, like ELEANOR MACK'S, blooms at the turn of a new season? Fall may mean dull skies... a chilly breeze off the lake... but at ELEANOR MACK'S it's the cue for a whole galaxy of new hats to make their dramatic fall entrance. This season, hats reach a new high in fashion originality. You'll see unusual colors, textures—and exciting new departures from the lines of other years. The trend is towards "more hat"... designs that cover the head more completely. Black is the fashion leader and you'll stop to admire the lush black velvets... the midnight blackness of velvet... the glister and sparkle of shiny black pan velvet. Do see for yourself at ELEANOR MACK'S.

P.S.—Lots of new "Stock Club" fashions just unpacked.

For that man in your life... new sportswear from MELVILLE POULTER'S to give him that "Right out of Esquire" look. You'll help him get more for his money if you shop with him NOW at MELVILLE POULTER'S while the shop is brimming with new fall arrivals. One outstanding value is the famous Bluestone sports shirt in authentic Scotch tartans... tailored within an inch of its life in staunch wool fabric, with a small percentage of rayon. A good buy at 7.95. Then there are reversible American windbreakers... all-wool on one side, rain-resistant fabric on the other. Navy or maroon with white. Warmly knitted storm cuffs, waistband, neckband. 14.95. See the pure Botany wool sweaters with cashmere finish, V-neckline, long sleeves. 8.95. And the new precision tailored slacks in fine cavalry twill. 14.95. Many other jackpot values, too, at MELVILLE POULTER'S.

Peggy tells me that the price of meat has everybody baffled. Buyers for the big stores were confidently looking forward to a drop in beef, come September. But, disappointingly, beef prices are climbing steadily upwards. Pork, too, is becoming hard to get and more expensive. Although nobody seems to quite know why. There are a few bright spots, however, in the meat situation. The price of lamb has dropped very considerably—and this week it's good economy, to treat your family to a roast of lamb or tempting lamb chops. Veal is also fairly reasonable at the moment.

Chicken—boiling fowl, particularly—are still a "best buy" for the penny shopper. There are still some fryers available, and they're very reasonably priced. You can s-t-r-e-t-c-h your food dollar, too, by serving fish occasionally. Fresh halibut, cod and salmon are all available in Kelowna stores just now. And here's a tip from Peggy! When buying salmon—don't insist on red sockeye every time. Fresh coho salmon is every bit as tasty and always lower in price. Peggy tells me that fresh coho is a favorite purchase with budget-wise buyers for restaurants, hospitals and other institutions. It's penny-wise and, when properly prepared, can scarcely be distinguished from red sockeye.

Here's news from Peggy about the fresh fruit and vegetable situation. The third crop of local lettuce is now in the stores and the quality is tops. By staggering their planting, local growers are still giving us fresh spinach, green onions and radishes. Local broccoli and cauliflower are wonderful just now and, of course, you'll find every possible kind of squash and vegetable marrow in the stores. Egg Plant is available, too. It's delicious when dipped in egg and bread crumbs, then fried in butter.

Local Meat Inspection Bylaw Produces Results

ANNOUNCEMENT

MICK and MAW of MICK & MAW'S CAFE wish to announce the change of management as of Monday, Sept. 22nd. In our absence the business will be carried on by—

MRS. J. PRIOR

May we also take this opportunity to express our thanks for your past patronage and a desire for your future good will.

PLEASE NOTE CHANGE OF HOURS:
Open 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. daily.
Closed all day Wednesday.

Kelowna's meat inspection bylaw is continuing to produce results. At Monday night's council meeting, Ald. Art Jackson stated that 76 carcasses of beef; 49 veal; 68 hogs and 26 sheep and lamb were inspected by the veterinarian.

Mr. Jackson stated that one beef liver; two hog hearts, and two hog livers were condemned as being unfit for human consumption.

The aldermen commented that the new regulations had once more prevented infected meat finding its way to the consumers' table.

the Benvoulin structure, and the board of stewards still have a letter which the Aberdeens sent from Scotland.

At the social evening held last Monday, H. Nichols, a church elder, paid tribute to the old timers and honored guests. As each one was introduced, Mrs. George Reid and Mrs. C. Doran presented them with a corsage.

Mrs. Reid, who is also president of the MacMillan Circle, extended a welcome and introduced chairman of the evening, Rev. P. H. Mallett, who in turn read greetings from Rev. and Mrs. Stewart Crysdale, and from Rev. J. C. Goodfellow, conference historian. Rev. Crysdale was a former minister. Rev. Alan Pound read personal letters from Lord and Lady Aberdeen. Mrs. Wilbur Reid read letters from former members of 42 years ago, Mrs. Cowan and Mr. Nasmith.

OLDTIMERS HONORED

Following is a thumbnail sketch of some of the old timers who were honored Monday evening and who were present for the occasion:

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Reid have been members of the congregation since coming to the district in 1903. The year Mr. Reid was elected an elder. He also served on the board of stewards and was for many years Sunday School superintendent. Mrs. Reid taught the primary department and has always taken an active part in women's work. She was a charter member of the original ladies' aid of the Benvoulin church.

Mrs. J. B. Fisher came to the district in 1906 and has been an active member of the ladies' aid and particularly interested in the work of the W.M.S. She played the organ for church services for many years and sang in the soprano section of the various choirs the church has had from time to time.

Mrs. A. Hardy joined the congregation in 1919, although she had been in the district some years before. The late Mr. Hardy worked on the church building and was present for the church dedication service. Mrs. Hardy has always been interested in Sunday School and besides teaching a class, played the organ for Sunday School for many years. She has always been active in the women's organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McFarlane came to the district in 1923 and have given the church splendid support. Mrs. McFarlane has been a valued member of the women's groups and Mr. McFarlane has always been ready with his assistance.

Mrs. A. McMillan served the congregation with her husband, Rev. A. McMillan from December, 1925 to June, 1937, returning in 1941 to become a member.

LINK WITH PAST

Mrs. Fred Munson and Bob Munson were asked to stand as a link with the early days when the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munson was the stopping place for the travelling minister. Mrs. Munson originally named the church.

Tribute was paid to the late William Hamill, who for 32 years served the congregation as secretary-treasurer.

After formal introductions, a welcome was extended to the new minister's wife, Mrs. Mallett. A few words of appreciation were extended to Mrs. Wilbur Reid for the splendid work and time she spent in gathering material for a Memorial Book. Articles go back to the early history of the church. This Memorial Book will be on display during the evening and was admired by everyone.

Tribute was also paid to Mrs. George Sutherland who was present in the gathering and who was also present 60 years ago when the church was opened.

Proceeds from the offering will go towards renovating the church tower.

A musical program brought the evening to a close. A duet was rendered by Mrs. and Miss Ferguson "In the Garden"; piano solo by Maryanne Tucker; solo, Mrs. Cameron Day; accordion solo, Gerald Geen; solo, Norman McLellan; solo Ernie Burnett.

Tigers Keep B.C. Laurels In Okanagan

Provincial senior B boxla laurels and the Pat Hartney Trophy will rest in the Okanagan for the second year in a row.

Vernon Tigers kept the crown in the valley in convincing fashion Monday night when they topped Victoria Foul Bays 19-11 to sweep the best-of-three B.C. final in two straight. They won 15-13 Saturday.

Six big goals in the second frame put the Tigers into a lead they never relinquished. Sarge Sammartino, record-setting scoring champion of the Interior Lacrosse Association, paced the Vernonites to victory with seven goals.

Vernon's conquest was the third for Interior clubs. Kamloops was first to win the trophy and Kelowna Bruins did the trick last year. In their march towards the top, Rollo Sammartino and his Tigers led their league by a large margin, downed Kamloops Klippers in the league semi-finals and swept the Bruins in four straight in the final.

August Was Hot, Dry Month

August, 1952, had the same number of days as August, 1951, but in some other respects they were as different as night and day.

Last month goes into the records as one of the driest on record. Compare the .09 precipitation for last month to the 1.21 inches for August a year ago. Measurable rain fell on only two days last month, with a trace on one other day.

It was hotter, too, last month than a year ago. Around Regatta time it was hitting 90 or better with the highest for the month (94) coming on the 5th. It was 90 or better seven times last month—and only four times in 1951. Mean highs were 81.8 (1952) and 80.9 (1951). Mean lows were 52.42 and 52.6.

At Joe Rich, where the residents experienced 2.06 inches of rain in August of 1951, they saw only .38 of an inch this past August. The mercury at Joe Rich reached a high of 92 on the 4th and slipped to freezing or below on four nights.

Daily records for Kelowna and Joe Rich are shown for comparative purposes (courtesy of R. P. Walrod, Kelowna, and Mrs. Mary Weddell, Joe Rich):

Former Kelowna Girl Witnesses Air Tragedy

MARJORIE Childerstone, the adventuresome Kelowna miss who rode her faithful horse "Rusty" from Vancouver to the Orchard City, and who later made newspaper headlines by riding through the rugged mountainous country to attend the Calgary Stampede, is now in England. In fact she has joined the air arm of the WRENS, the women's division of the Royal Navy.

One of her most terrifying experiences since she arrived in England about one year ago, was to witness Britain's wonder jet—the De Havilland 110 night fighter plane—blow up in mid-air during the air show at Farnborough, Eng. Twenty persons were killed.

Since arriving in England, 20-year-old Miss Childerstone has had four articles published by English newspapers. One dealt with the Calgary Stampede; another on square-dancing horses, a third dealing with country fairs, and the last one "Bronc Busting in the West."

Now stationed at Somerset, Eng., Miss Childerstone, in a letter to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Childerstone, 527 - Sutherland Avenue, gave a graphic description of the air tragedy at Farnborough.

She writes: "I expect you heard all about the crash at the Farnborough air show. In case you didn't, I'll give you a first hand description. It was about half way through the show, and we were all enjoying it very much. Some of the planes (jets, helicopters and ordinary planes) were really terrific. It was even more wonderful as we knew a bit about the different planes and how they worked, etc."

"Then this De Havilland 110 took off and headed straight up into the sky, until we could see it no more. There was nothing for about a minute, and then two puffs of smoke appeared about eight miles straight up. About a minute and a half later, we heard the bangs (like ack ack shells) then the plane was seen swooping down (the puffs and bangs were when it went through the sound barrier.) It came hurtling down. It was a wonderful sight. It looked like something out of "Flash Gordon." It circled the field at about 600 MPH and started to climb again, when all of a sudden the tail plane just seemed to fall off. Then the wings collapsed and the fuselage caved in. There was an almighty roar and the two jet engines shot out of it and sailed across the sky together like a couple of huge spinning bullets. There were pieces of the plane shooting straight at us. The engines went directly over our heads and one of them landed in among the crowd on the hillside and bounced and rolled down killing 18 people and injuring about 30. (editor's note: two more died later). The other landed in a field. We were all so shocked that we couldn't move. The flying piece of plane were coming straight at us, but you couldn't tell where they'd land, so it was no use running.

"A huge piece landed about 20 yards from us and injured several people. People fainted all around. I think the thing that upset me most was that there were two people in the plane and there was no sign of a body as the pieces fell to the ground. The pilot's wife was in the crowd too. He must have been torn apart by the impact. They continued on with the show, but I lost interest. It was a terrible thing to see."

A Tribute

A GREAT LADY HAS PASSED

When the Venerable Archdeacon Thomas Greene, B.A., graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, passed away on Sept. 12, 1952, Mr. George Rose, then owner and editor of the Kelowna Courier, penned and published a touching and masterly tribute entitled "A Saint has Passed" (Oct. 3, 1952) to the memory of the man who for over forty years had served as Anglican priest in the Kelowna Diocese. His duties were in Penticton and Mr. Tom Ellis built a little church on the Ellis estate. From here for several years he ministered to all outlying districts—Camp McKinney, Keremeos and Okanagan Falls.

In 1894 Kelowna was added to his charge, but distance was great, roads primitive and his duties proved too scattered and difficult. In 1897 the parish was subdivided and he chose Kelowna as his permanent home.

During the years he was in Penticton, while he was away on his pastoral duties, Mrs. Greene, his wife and helpmeet was often left alone with their very young family.

I came from Oxford in 1894 as a farm-pupil to Mr. Edward Bullock-Webster at Keremeos, and during the time I was there Mrs. Greene's house was home to me whenever I chose to visit them.

A house was built for them in Kelowna after their arrival, and here Mrs. Greene brought up five children under conditions few women would like to face today. There was no refrigeration, no baths or sanitary arrangements, no heating of houses except by wood stoves, no light except coal oil lamps. Children, girls especially, in those days were not put into strong dark overalls. Can you picture what the washing and ironing meant? The ironing was done with a Mrs. Pott's sad iron. "Sad" indeed! It was heating on the kitchen stove, and the hotter the weather the bigger the ironing. And these are only a few of the hardships a gentlewoman of that day had to put up with.

Yet with it all the Archdeacon and Mrs. Greene entertained a great deal, as befitted their position; no there was no home in the valley where friends or strangers got a warmer or more hospitable welcome. To me and to my wife it was a second home through all our long years of friendship.

It is with grateful memory that I look back on the happy days when, for many, many years, the Archdeacon and his family took their annual holiday camping on our Okanagan Mission lakeshore. On their second camping trip and while I was still a bachelor with only a shack on the property half a mile from the lake shore, the Archdeacon and his young family arrived from Kelowna in his open row boat, the "Colleen", in a blinding rain storm. A gale was blowing. There were no wharves, and it was difficult to land. I was on the lake shore to meet them, and found them, their tent and bedding, all wet. We built a roaring log fire, and got the tents up. And the rain and wind continued.

Next morning I brought down my wagon with a load of lumber and we proceeded to put up a 24x18 foot shack and a verandah, the remains of what is now known as "Parson's Pleasure." The Archdeacon named it so, and so the name has remained. He would not have it changed.

Kelowna In Bygone Days

From the Files of The Kelowna Courier

ONE YEAR AGO

September, 1951
Donald Campbell, 30-year-old son of the late Sir Malcolm Campbell, has been invited by the Kelowna Board of Trade to bring his Bluebird speedboat to Kelowna to race on Okanagan Lake.

L. G. Butler has withdrawn his resignation and has resumed his seat on the board of governors of B.C. Tree Fruits Ltd.

The first annual Kelowna Industrial Exhibition has been crowned with success and acclaimed by thousands.

Dispute over a new working contract between the International Woodworkers of America Union and Southern Interior lumber operators will go before a conciliation board later this week.

Freight rate surcharge, in effect on the CPR spur to Osoyoos since it was built in 1944, will be lifted.

Kelowna Bruins captured their third successive Interior Lacrosse Association championship, downing Kamloops Klippers four games to two in the final. Kamloops Okonots copped the Okanagan-Mainline Baseball League title, defeating Rutland Adanacs in the final.

TEN YEARS AGO

September, 1942
Burglars broke into Waldron's Grocery, stole about $400 worth of merchandise and subsequently wrecked a car belonging to J. E. Coops, which they had stolen.

Fire of unknown origin badly damaged the home of Mrs. T. E. Jones on Wilson Avenue. The house was owned by Mrs. A. Gibb.

B.C.'s Forestry Service has announced it will construct a depot on cache for their equipment in this district on two lots at the corner of Ellis and Clement.

Though registration in the high school is up over the previous year, attendance is poor owing to so many students working in the orchards or in packing houses.

Brigadier R. F. L. Keller, who spent the formative years of his life in Kelowna, has been appointed a major-general and given command of an overseas division of the Canadian Army.

A barrage balloon which had broken from its moorings near Seattle was shot down by two planes a short distance from McCulloch.

Fruit-stealing squirrels are plaguing farmers in the Oliver area.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

September, 1933
Just before the sky clouded over yesterday morning and heavy rain fell, observers were fortunate enough to get a good view of the eclipse of the sun, only partial in this region, at about 11 o'clock. The black shadow of the moon was visible clearly, impinged on the top of the sun, between 10 and 12. The percentage of eclipse in this part of the world was stated by astronomers to be about 45, the percentage increasing eastwards until it was reached in a strip running through Quebec. Clouds obscured the sun here before the full percentage was reached.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

September, 1922
Upon his retirement as organist and choirmaster at First United Church in order to further his musical study in Toronto, F. Wigglesworth was presented with a purse of $100 in gold-coin as a mark of appreciation of the manner in which he had discharged his duties.

Following a convention of the Alberta Press Association and the B.C. and Yukon Press Association, held at Vernon, the 55 Okanagan delegates for one day, during which an excursion was made, covering Kelowna, Summerland and Penticton. Leaving Okanagan Landing at 9:00 a.m., the steamer arrived at Kelowna shortly after 11:00 a.m. Cars were in readiness, furnished by public-spirited citizens, and some of the visitors were taken for an hour's drive through the orchard country while others preferred to visit the canneries and fruit packing houses. After the drive, luncheon was served in the Aquatic Pavilion, with the Board of Trade as hosts and the Women's Institute as purveyors and servers. W. E. Adams, board president, gave a hearty welcome to the visitors, in which Mayor D. W. Sutherland joined on behalf of the city. Liberal supplies of choice, fully ripe fruit were placed on board the Okanagan before she left for the south and as the vessel pulled away from the wharf, the visitors cheered vigorously. Alberta was represented by 36 newspaper men and B.C. by 20 from all parts of the province.

The final for the Robertson Cup, emblematic of the Interior football championship, ended in a scoreless tie at the city park between Kelowna and Merritt. Another game was planned to settle the issue.

FORTY YEARS AGO

September, 1912
Little Ralph Weddell fell off the C.P.R. wharf and weighed down by his clothing, he was in danger of drowning until H. M. Goode went to his assistance, jumped into the water and brought him safely to land. The boy was little the worse except for swallowing a good deal of water. Since then, no children are allowed to play on the wharf—a wise precaution.

The McKenzie Co.'s delivery team had a lively runaway when a strong breeze blew pieces of paper about and the horses bolted down the lane between Bernard and Lawrence. R. Minns pluckily tried to stop them but could only reach one horse and had to let go after getting his leg rather badly bruised. Crossing Water Street, the frightened horses upset the wagon at the opera house corner and by the time they were stopped, back of the Leckie Hardware, the top was badly smashed and the rear axle bent, but little or no damage was done to the horses.

At the Peachland Regatta, Kelowna won the three-quarter mile war canoe race against Peachland by a big margin. Peachland won the junior and mixed war canoe races. The last of these races, one mile with one turn, for the Lang Cup, was won by Kelowna.

WARDEN D. ELLIS HELPS FIND MAN LOST AT VERNON

VERNON — Fisheries Supervisor for the British Columbia Game Commission, C. H. (Jimmy) Robinson of Nelson, walked out of the rough bush country Friday after being lost since early Thursday afternoon.

On an inspection trip to Bardolf Lake, East of Lavington in the Okanagan Valley, Robinson got separated from his two companions, Harry Kaufman and Wash Ryan, both members of the Vernon Fish and Game Club. They searched for him until 8:30 p.m. Thursday and then reported his disappearance to the R.C.M.P. in Vernon. The next morning a search party of 30 men was organized and set out to find the missing man.

STEADY RAINFALL
Game Warden Don Ellis of Kelowna reported that Robinson had been walking through the bush during a steady rainfall all night, and that he and Game Warden Allan Frisby of Vernon, formerly of Nelson, had tracked him with dogs down a stream that feeds Bardolf Lake. When the dogs turned to go up stream, the wardens called them off and continued downstream to Noble's saw mill. A short time after their arrival at the mill, Robinson arrived in a state of exhaustion.

LOCAL LAWYER CONCILIATION BOARD CHAIRMAN

A Kelowna lawyer has been named chairman of a Labor Relations conciliation board in the dispute at Trail between members of the Nelson Typographical Union, Local 340, International Typographical Union, and Trail Times Ltd.

ROOMING HOUSE DWELLERS MUST PAY REFUSE LEVY

First three readings were given to the amendment of the city garbage bylaw by City Council Monday night. In addition to setting up a basic monthly rate, the amendment also increases the number of classifications for business and industries, while people living in apartment or rooming houses will not escape the levy.

Alderman Art Jackson explained that in the many local firms have hauled their own garbage to the city dump. The bylaw is now broken down into "house garbage"; "trade waste"; "ashes"; "household"; "apartment house"; "trade premises." Apartment and rooming houses must pay 10 cents per licensed room per month.

SOUTH KELOWNA PTA MEMBERS HOLD MEETING

SOUTH KELOWNA—South Kelowna P.T.A. held the first meeting of the 1952-53 season last Monday night. Only seven members were able to be present, so an informal discussion was held, during which Mrs. Grantham and Mrs. Dunlop served refreshments. Matters to be brought up at the next meeting were tabled, when it was hoped a better attendance would be possible.

Miss Dorothy Phipps returned from a visit to Misses Kay and Lena Hornsberger in Vancouver. She was accompanied on her homeward trip by Miss Eleanor Nelkenbrecker, who has been staying with relatives at Pitt Meadows, B.C.

Miss Joan Smith of Kent, England, visited her cousin, Mr. Norbert Seddon and his family. Miss Smith is now making her home in B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Field and George spent last week-end in Salmon Arm, visiting Mrs. Field's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Francis returned from a trip to the prairies, and Mrs. Maier came home from Terrace, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hewlett are staying with Mr. Hewlett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hewlett, before returning east. Miss Isabel Hewlett is spending a few weeks at home before returning to her studies at Essondale laboratory.

WINNIPEG PAPER WINS FRENCH WEEKLY AWARD

ROUVIN, Que.—A Winnipeg weekly newspaper, La Liberté et le Patriote, was judged the best all-around French weekly newspaper in regular format at the annual meeting of the French Weekly Newspapers Association here last week.

The Winnipeg paper and Le Courrier de St. Hyacinthe of St. Hyacinthe, Que., tied for first place in use of the French language. La Liberté was second for initiative in promoting economic and social progress in its area.

Le Courrier was judged the second best all-around paper. In tabloid format, Le Lingot, of Arvida, Que., was judged best.

Awards were presented at the annual banquet Saturday night attended by Postmaster-General Alcide Cote. Another visitor was Jacques Miquelon, Union Nationale member for Abitibi East in the Quebec Legislature.

NEW THEATRE

HALIFAX—The first drive-in theatre in mainland Nova Scotia has been opened at nearby Sackville on the Halifax-Windsor highway. Similar theatres were opened near Sydney, N.S., and Saint John, N.B., earlier.

Two big Allied air blows were struck against the Chinese Communists in North Korea at the week-end—on the doorstep of Manchuria and Russian Siberia.

More than 35 Superforts from Okinawa and Japan flew through heavy anti-aircraft fire to hurl 350 tons of explosives on the Suho power plant, the largest in Asia. Suho's generators, once supplied power to all North Korea, and to Chinese Communist industries in Manchuria.

The plant was last attacked in June, when there was a storm in the British parliament because the war had been extended so far north without prior consultation with British authorities. This time, a Foreign Office spokesman in London said Britain had been consulted about the new attack and had agreed to it. It was made because intelligence reports showed the vast power installation was being restored.

The other strike was by United States naval planes against a troop concentration centre at Hoeryong, 1 1/2 miles from Manchuria and 41 miles west of Siberia.

N.A.T.O. DEMONSTRATES

A powerful fleet of Atlantic Treaty warships steamed out of the river Clyde in Scotland for action stations in the North Sea, as the curtain went up on "Exercise Mainbrace"—a two-week naval exercise involving 160 vessels of eight countries.

The Canadian aircraft carrier Magnificent and the cruiser Quebec are participating in the war games over a sea area of 500,000 square miles with vessels from Britain, the United States, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Norway and Denmark. The theme of the exercise is to combat an enemy invasion of North Norway, involving an amphibious landing by the defenders in Denmark.

The Soviet army newspaper Red

Star said in Moscow that the whole operation points to "the aggressive schemes of the Pentagon." (The Pentagon houses the U.S. military headquarters at Washington.)

COMPARATIVE STRENGTH

The state department at Washington reported that the European members of the North Atlantic pact now have more than 2,000,000 men under arms, compared with Russia's 4,000,000.

These figures refer only to Europe. The report does not mention the total U.S. strength of 3,500,000 men under arms, the armed main power of friendly countries such as Yugoslavia and Spain, nor, on the other hand, the armies of Russia's satellites and Communist China.

The department cites the Soviet forces as evidence of why it considers the job of building up western power is far from completed.

REFORMERS' TROUBLES

General Mohammed Naguib's new military government of Egypt will soon set up five high level committees to handle the five basic points of Egyptian foreign policy. These are: policy towards Britain, the United States, the Sudan, Israel and the Arab League.

Official Egyptian sources at Cairo believe Britain is ready to enter into early negotiations with Naguib's government to settle outstanding Anglo-Egyptian differences, particularly over the Suez canal. The Sudan however is a big difficulty in reaching complete settlement.

In the meantime Naguib's government is described as being fully aware that it cannot implement sweeping agrarian reforms and an industrial program, or strengthen the Egyptian armed forces, without western financial and technical assistance.

Naguib is aware that the price for such assistance may be Egypt's participation in a western-sponsored Middle East defence organization. The army leader, who ousted King Farouk last month, is known to favor such a scheme but is seeking the best terms possible, in a compromise which would satisfy both western defence needs and Egyptian national aspirations. Reports that the Naguib government is getting ready to abolish the traditional fez or tarboosh as the national headgear have stirred a storm among Egyptian manufacturers of the tall tarboosh.

Fez manufacturers are said to have prepared a statement saying that patriotic, religious Egyptian men and officials "find it impossible to do without the tarboosh." And not only that; it keeps the baldheaded man from exposing his baldness, and makes the short man taller.

BENVOLIN

BENVOLIN—Flight Cadet Ronald Holland arrived home from Winnipeg Wednesday of last week to visit his parents Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Holland, KLO Road, Ronald left again Tuesday for RMC, Kingston, Ontario.

CHEESE CORNMEAL FINGERS

Mix and sift into bowl, 1½ c. once-sifted pastry flour (or 1½ c. once-sifted hard-wheat flour), 3 tps. Magic Baking Powder, ¼ tsp. salt. Cut in finely 3 lbs. the chilled shortening and mix in ½ c. yellow cornmeal, ½ c. shredded cheese and 2 lbs. the chopped parsley. Make a well in centre, pour in ¾ c. milk and mix lightly with a fork. Knead for 10 seconds on a lightly-floured board and roll out to ¼" thick rectangle; cut into 12 fingers and arrange, slightly apart, on greased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven, 425°, about 15 mins. Serve hot with butter or margarine. Yield—1 dozen fingers.

EAST KELOWNA W.I. APPROVES HONORARIUM FOR B.C. TREASURER.

EAST KELOWNA—The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall with the president in the chair and ten members present.

The financial statement was given by the treasurer; correspondence dealt with, including the British Columbia Women's Institute news letter, which expressed thanks to the retiring president, Mrs. J. H. East, who has given such fine leadership for four years as president.

The news letter said: "We are grateful to her for her splendid contribution to the Women's Institutes of B.C. We welcome our new president, Mrs. Shaw who served so faithfully as vice-president and director and we wish her every success in her new position."

"Mrs. A. A. Shaw sends the following message to B.C. Women's Institutes:

"I sincerely wish to express my deep appreciation to you all for the confidence you have placed in me, by honoring me as your provincial president. I will endeavor to fulfill this honor to the best of my ability and with divine help and your full co-operation pledged in my support, we will go forward to success. May the pathway that leads to your house from mine be a pathway of peace."

"Today the world seems to be faced with almost superhuman problems, but the bridge of friendship can overcome all obstacles to understanding and goodwill."

A discussion took place on the raising of the per capita tax to forty cents, which was voted at the convention held in Vancouver to meet the increased board honorariums.

It was also agreed to have the secretary-treasurer, a non-voting member of the board in order to retain the services of Mrs. R. Doe, who has served so well as secretary-treasurer and a board member for the past two terms but no provision was made for her honorarium. She handles a large amount of money in the year, and the correspondence is very heavy. The members were asked if they were in favor of Mrs. Doe receiving an honorarium of $30, $75 or $100 a year. The meeting agreed on the latter figure and the secretary was asked to notify the superintendent accordingly.

The hot water tank in the Community Hall kitchen was discussed. It was decided to contact the Hall Board to have it installed at their cost.

The shade of paint was chosen for the ladies' dressing room. The president will see T. R. Carter about the purchase of sand.

Renting of Institute cups, saucers and plates, etc., was discussed. Members agreed on a charge of one cent per article to any organization.

Afternoon tea was served by Mrs. G. Davidson and Mrs. A. Harvie.

Miss Eileen Graham left on Sunday for Montreal, enroute for England having spent the summer months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Graham. Eileen returns to London to resume her studies at the Royal Academy of Music.

Mr. W. Affleck has been on holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Carter. He left the early part of the week for his home on Vancouver Island.

The Rev. W. S. Beames who is taking over the Okanagan Mission Parish duties for a few months, officiated at the Holy Communion services Sunday last at St. Mary's Church, East Kelowna.

The sympathy of all is extended to Mrs. K. Stirling, of South Kelowna, on the death of her mother, which occurred in Kelowna during last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Foot have had as their guests for a few days, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dick, and son Jimmie, of Vancouver.

Miss M. Moodie arrived from Vancouver to attend the Eileen Graham recital which was held in Kelowna on Friday last. She was the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Graham.

Mac picking is well under way in the district.

We were very pleased to hear that little Anne Thorneloe has returned home having been a patient in the Kelowna General Hospital for about a week. She is reported to be much better.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Silvester have had as their week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, of Quesnel.

EILEEN GRAHAM GIVES PLEASING MUSIC RECITAL

Eileen Graham, scholarship student at the Royal Academy of Music in London, England, appeared in recital Friday evening, to a most attentive, appreciative audience.

Held at the Anglican Parish Hall, the pianist was presented by the Kelowna Branch of the Okanagan Valley Musical Festival Association. Stage setting and lighting was excellent.

Poise, sincerity and good style were always evident as Miss Graham played her way through the sonorous polyphony of Bach and the lyric melody of Mozart to reach an excellent climax in the Mendelssohn Andante and Rondo Capriccioso.

This was followed by selections from "Die Davidsbündler" by Schuman, the sparkling Kabalevsky Sonata and Chopin's Allegro de Concert.

For her encore, Miss Graham chose "Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring" and Schumann's Romance.

Kelowna can be well proud of Eileen Graham who is now entering her final year of study at the Academy.

Barbara Brent's BUYS AND WHYS

MONTREAL—There is such wonderful variety in our native fruits, clear through to October. No wonder they please everyone. And no wonder everyone in the family loves the jams and jellies you do down with those fruits when you use CERTO FRUIT PECTIN. Those jams and jellies will be perfectly set... full of rich, fruit-fresh flavor. Results with Certo are always so sure. You need only follow the simple recipes in the booklet, under the label of each bottle of Certo. And you'll save yourself so much time and effort! With Certo, you can do down jams and jellies in 1/3 the time of the former long-boil method—and get up to 50% more jars from the same amount of fruit.

"Laugh And The World Laughs With You"—Cry and you cry alone. It's an old saying but forever true! So, remember, next time you're feeling bluer than a rainy day, you should (and can!) do something about it. A glass of sparkling SAL HEPATICA taken before breakfast will make you feel like a new woman. And when hubby or son isn't feeling just right, either, suggest they try Sal Hepatica, too. Did you know that it's been a faithful family laxative for over sixty years? Ummmm. And another beauty about Sal Hepatica is that you can use it safely merely as a "refresher" in the morning—or at night when your system feels the need of a more thorough remedy. Next time you see your druggist, ask him for Sal Hepatica.

Fast It's Later Than You Think—Fall is all but here and winter won't be far behind. Yes, time's a-flying, but it's still not too late to arrange a Coal Loan to ease the strain of paying for your winter warmth. Now's the time to buy your coal—before prices get any higher—and the BANK OF MONTREAL is ready to help you pay for it with a Coal Loan. So, if you've been "putting off" coal-buying, don't wait another day to see about a low-cost B of M Coal Loan. Talk it over with your husband and then pay a call on the manager of your nearest branch of "My Bank". With his assistance, you can have all your coal delivered at once, without having to pay for it all at once. You can spread out your loan repayment over as many as seven easy instalments. That's what I call a real help to a busy budget!

OATMEAL ROLLS

● Stirring constantly, quickly pour 1 c. boiling water into ¾ c. oatmeal. Scald ¾ c. milk, 2 tbs. granulated sugar, 1½ tps. salt, 2 tbs. molasses and 5 tbs. shortening, cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl ½ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar, stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Mix in oatmeal, then lukewarm milk mixture. Stir in 2 c. once-sifted bread flour; beat smooth. Work in 2½ c. (about) once-sifted bread flour. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl and grease top of dough. Cover and set in a warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough and turn out on board sprinkled with oatmeal; cut into 2 equal portions and cut each portion into 10 pieces. Knead into smooth balls and arrange in 2 greased 8" square cake pans. Grease tops. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375°, about 30 minutes. Yield—32 small rolls.

The Career Woman

By OLI DAUM

This is the first in a series of stories introducing to the public, Kelowna's business and professional women... their careers and how they got started... the field in which they specialize... the manner in which they conduct their daily busy lives and their experiences in learning to know and to cater to what you, the public, like best.

MERNIE PURVIS

Mernie Purvis, the dynamo of the smartest exclusive ladies' wear in Kelowna, never for a moment doubted what business she wanted to be in. She loves every phase of the ladies' ready-to-wear. The excitement of fashion, the thrill of colors and the extreme gamble of the business offers all the stimulant that makes her business like no other. Operating a ladies' ready-to-wear is like running a three-ring circus. Something must be moving all the time. Relax, and you've had it!

Mernie can begin a buying season with the mental approach that "things are tough all over" and finish the buying season bursting with enthusiasm, eager for the new merchandise to reach the store. At times like this, it's always a source of amazement to Mernie how the top manufacturers hit the jackpot in styling and fabric again and again to entice the public to keep buying. Each season demands new styles, new fabrics, new colors and each season, a buyer wonders what could possibly be new. A tuck here and a flare there never fails to bring results.

The success of a ladies' ready-to-wear is controlled by the buying, and the buyer is always looking for businesses in the country were on quotas, fighting for every stitch of clothing that they sold in their stores, but Mernie opened a ladies' wear in the same location as her original store is today.

In those days, Mernie was known as the "girl who sat at her typewriter" because she would sit and type letters to the same manufacturer two and three times a day, hoping her letter would get to the top of the pile. On her buying trips, she would hound the manufacturers until they finally gave her what she wanted. Sometimes because they realized she genuinely needed help, but more often than not, because they realized that she just wouldn't take "no" for an answer.

BETTER MERCHANDISE

Mernie had one idea. That was to pioneer the Okanagan with better coats, suits and dresses from the better houses such as Deja, Isman, Taub, Fashion Preferred and Sheddack to name a few, which had never even heard of Kelowna, and which were unwilling to admit was on the map. She had another idea, too. She believed that if a person would really try to succeed, it would take her farther than any amount of brains. She has been progressing ever since.

Mernie was not capitalized when she opened her business. She borrowed $250 and bought her first inventory valued at $1,128. This included 26 dresses, and a few hand-tailored suits which she managed to get only by begging, borrowing and pleading. Six weeks later, she paid back her initial loan and for the next month and a half, operated without employing anyone. During this time, she took her own fittings, made her own fires, took her alterations out to be done and every morning at 10 o'clock, would leave a sign in her door saying, "Closed to the public." In September, 1944, Mernie didn't know one thing about the ladies' wear business, but today, she knows all the answers and in comparison, her inventory today is valued at $36,000.

When she had been operating for six months, she decided it was time to stage a fashion show. Everything she had in the store, she took out. The clothes had to be beautiful, even sensational. The show had to be terrific. From that time on, Mernie's merchandise draws the most comments, Mernie's shows draw the largest crowds. Mernie insists on representing only the best. In the near future, Mernie hopes to fulfill a dream she has had for many years. In the hub of Kelowna, she will open one of the smartest ladies' wear stores in the province. It was a disappointment that circumstances favored Penitence for her first big step forward but she intends to make it up to Kelowna.

Little Theatre Plans Associate Membership Drive

In the past few years, the Vancouver Little Theatres have encouraged associate members to join in their activities. The fee for the membership was not just a set donation for the privilege of aiding an arts group but the Little Theatres actually offered something in return. For a nominal fee, an associate member was allowed to attend all stage nights, singings, cocktail parties as well as the theatrical performances of the year. A ticket shown at the box office gave the individual choice seats with no money exchanged.

Frank Bishop, vice-president of the Kelowna Little Theatre, has long desired to introduce the theatre here and has finally seen its fulfillment. Under his management, the associate membership drive has come into being. Tickets have been printed and will be distributed at the next general meeting by business manager, R. Birch.

As in the Vancouver set-up, the associate members of the Kelowna Little Theatre will receive entrance to studio nights, social functions and the four performances of this year's season. The first of these "Ghost Train" is scheduled for the first week of November, directed by Don Haines, past resident of Kelowna Little Theatre.

Without giving away the secrets that are involved in "Ghost Train,"

CORSAGES FOR ALL LADIES

Needlecraft News

by Pauline Roy

MANY WOMEN WHO like to sew and turn out lovely home sewn outfits seem puzzled by several terms in connection with fabrics. So, we can spend a little while talking about some of the interesting facts about fabrics. All fabrics are developed from fibers. Cotton and linen are vegetable fibers; silk and wool, animal. Rayons are synthetic and, therefore, man-made. These fibers are spun into yarns of many kinds. Hundreds of different types of looms then weave these yarns into all kinds of textiles whose surface effects may vary from a satin smoothness, to a knobby roughness. Then the fabric finish may again change the effect. Some fabrics have a sizing or glazing added to give firmness, stiffness, smoothness, gloss and other effects. Other special finishes render fabrics waterproof, spot repellent, crush resistant, fireproof — properties that will make the fabric suitable to the use to which it is to be put.

Nap or Pile

Some fabrics have a standing surface known as nap or pile. If you're uncertain about a particular fabric, brush your hand over its surface. It will usually feel smooth, running with the nap, and rougher against it. Pile is the term used in reference to velvet and velveteen; and nap, to the relatively smoother fabrics such as wool broadcloth. In making a garment the fabric is generally cut so that the nap runs downward to insure smoothness, but the velvet will give a desirable deep or rich effect if the pile runs upward. It is important, therefore, to have all pieces in such fabrics cut "heads up", that is, with the tops of each pattern piece facing the same way.

Ensemble made from Fake Fur

Fake fur snakeskin is used for the hat and ascot set pictured here. The lovely rich fabric lends itself to the making of up-to-date fall accessories to complement your favorite suit. If you would like to have a leaflet which includes the pattern and directions for making this set (medium size), send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper requesting FAKE FUR SNAKESKIN HAT AND ASCOT, Leaflet No. E-2788.

Girls Get Dressmaking Ideas Through Home Economic Course

Choosing the basic outfit for the fall school term comes second only to choosing the course of lectures, with most high school girls!

The new, softer, more womanly lines are all very well, but most high school girls plan from modest budgets. They want something plain enough for everyday, yet they are looking for an outfit which can be touched up with accessories for a Hi-Y tea. It must also go nicely with a warm jacket, should the wind blow sharply at the soccer games.

Girls who are style conscious, know that it is the deceptively simple-looking dress which is the most expensive to buy and the trickiest to sew. That's why many girls include, in addition to typing or art classes in their study courses, a session in the home economics room, in the art of dressmaking. That's the place to pick up ideas in sewing and the kind of well-cut patterns that give style. Also, it's where you can find out which material in a jacket goes best with what fabric in a skirt. To achieve those smoothly flowing feminine lines, it's best to learn the art of blending... cutting away unseen material in seams at necklines, in collar facings, sleeve finishes and pockets.

The current fashion for jersey and velveteen make the home dressmaking problem easier for undergraduates this fall. So does the cardigan look. These materials and styles are simple, yet dressy, and they wear well.

For the dressmaker accessory note, this season recommends fashion stitching. It is embroidery done by machine without using any attachments. You simply thread needle and bobbin with thread recommended for the stitch, and go ahead to make an attractive design on collar, cuff or belt. Embroidery is the last word this fall, too.

THE HOW, WHEN, WHERE OF PERSONAL LOANS

Here Are Some Interesting Facts from the B of M

People sometimes lose sight of the fact that making personal loans is one of the Bank's more important functions. But, as Fred Baines, manager of the Bank of Montreal branch at Kelowna, points out, your B of M manager is always ready to talk over any situation in which a personal loan may be helpful to you.

Suppose you are faced with an emergency, or the sudden opportunity to make a good buy, and are short of ready cash. If you are in a position to repay a loan by regular instalments out of your income, the B of M can advance you the money. On $100, for example, repaid in twelve monthly instalments, the interest charge comes to just 27 cents a month.

You can be sure of fair, business-like treatment at the B of M, just as you can be sure that anything you discuss will be held completely confidential. "When you ask for a loan at the B of M, you do not ask a favour."

TWO WEEKS ENOUGH—HERGY

Date Packers Open Camp Depends On Royals' Game

While ice will be available this week, Phil Hergesheimer, does not intend to start workouts for the Kelowna Packers until October 1. This date of October 1 depends on the New Westminster Royals, however. The Royals, who begin training here this week-end, are anxious for an exhibition game against the Packers.

The Packers favor such a game, too, or even another as well. But Hergesheimer believes that two weeks of drilling is the right amount before embarking on the season proper.

With league play beginning October 14, starting to form the team at the beginning of the month would work out just about right. However, Hergy will call workouts a little sooner if need be. That is, if the exhibition game with the Royals cannot be put off until around October 4 or 5.

"It's important from a psychological angle to play the Royals here first, if at all possible," the Packers mentor pointed out. More definite dates on the Royals' exhibition games are expected to be reached this week-end in conferences between Pratt and Hergesheimer.

PLAYERS SHOPPING
Hergy, in his second year at the helm of the Packers and the former "Phantom Phil" of the American Hockey League, explained there was little news to give out about who would be playing with the Packers this year—simply because all hockey players are shoppers at heart, looking around for the best deal they can get.

"As in other years, we cannot go out on the open market and bid for players," Hergy admitted, somewhat ruefully. "We know what we can afford to pay and we have to stick by that. But of all the teams in this league, the Packers will look more like last year's version than any other."

Nothing official has been published in either the Kamloops or Vernon camps while some players have been publicly announced as having signed playing cards by Pentiction. However, from information gleaned over the past few months and at the end of the hockey season, it appears quite likely that the other three clubs are cleaning house.

WANTS McMEEKIN
Hergesheimer confirmed reports that Paul Thompson, wily coach of the Kamloops Elks, was anxious to get Roy McMeekin, two years with the Packers and now the property of New Westminster, having signed a pro contract a few months ago.

DECIDE SOUTH OKANAGAN BALL TITLE SUNDAY

Quick end to the prolonged 1952 season faces Kelowna Chiefs Sunday when they take on the Pentiction Canucks at Athletic Oval at 1:30 p.m. It will be the second game of the best-of-three final for the South Okanagan Junior Baseball League championship.

Canucks have a grip on the title already, having won the first game 8-1 at Pentiction Sunday.

The series will be concluded here Sunday with a double-header if a third and deciding game is needed.

STEELE MEETS PICKERING IN GOLFING FINAL

Monk Steele, who has come into his element on the links this year with sparkling performances at home and on visiting courses, and Trev Pickering, local kinglypin two years ago, are finalists for the 1952 club championship.

Their 36-hole final will be staged Sunday, starting at 10:00 a.m. Pickering downed former champion Harold Johnson 2 and 1 while Steele disposed of Fred Williams 5 and 4 in the semi-finals. Dr. Cec Newby was champion last year.

PACKER—PATTER

Sparks From The Pot-Bellied Slove

By A. P. BACKER

Rumors are flyin'... that should be our theme song.

Hockey is in the air; the dominating topic that shoves war, flying saucers, Eisenhower, Stevenson, and the Liquor Inquiry Commission, right out of the picture.

This is a return engagement for this column which appeared for the first time last year. Never actually discovered whether it had one reader or one thousand.

The Big Question now is: Who are the Packers lining up?

Well, to release any information before said player was signed on the dotted line would be folly. As I said, rumors are flyin' and, although I might know a thing or three—or have a hunch—the powers-that-be are wisely keeping mum.

One thing I do know is that a rangy, high-scoring forward, who won the respect of Packer Backers for his uncanny ability to put that puck in the net behind McMeekin, may be wearing the familiar red-and-white colors this year.

His name? Ah-ha. He would be a welcome acquisition, indeed. But the catch is: What's the offer, whom would we have to exchange for this player?

GOOD SPORTS TOWN
Talked to a fellow in Vernon on Saturday. He said, talking about Vernon: "Funny town this, we have to have a winning team, or they won't support it. I'm inclined to think that comes under the heading of false concept."

There are a goodly number of fans in all cities and towns who will support their team, no reservations asked. Anyone who says that about Kelowna, for instance, is mistaken. Whether you are aware of it or not, this is a good sports town, the admission is gratis and reasonable, and we have nothing to complain about. This is a championship year, the Kelowna Packers are league champions and B.C. finalists, and deserve our fullest support.

Only heard one person beef about misuse of the word "team" but then he's only hurting himself. Boy, what he's missing! Hockey is a wonderful tonic.

As someone said just the other day, "It's half my life." Another fellow added, "I'd walk 10 miles in my bare feet to see a hockey game." That's the kind of fans we have around Kelowna! And the rural areas are just as fond of our Packers as we city dwellers are.

Yes, it's a great game, provides an opportunity to release pent-up emotions, has a definite therapeutic value. In other words, if you feel like yelling, gals and guys, go ahead, YELL! It will do you good... like Del does. But don't over do it.

Let's see, when's that first game? SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18. The team: KAMLOOPS ELKS. Can hardly wait. How about you?

LEAFS GET LUMLEY

Toronto Maple Leafs have acquired goalie Harry Lumley from Chicago-Black Hawks in a trade for four players, including goalie Al Rollins, defenceman Gus Morison and winger Cal Gardiner.

Four-Man Directorate To Govern Minor Puck Group

Destiny of the Kelowna and District Minor Hockey Association for the coming season will be in the hands of a four-man governing body who will choose their own officers and have the power to add.

At this week's annual general meeting it was felt that direction, laying down of policy, purchasing, drafting schedules and the host of details could best be taken care of by a compact directorate. Named were Jack Krasman, president during the past season; Ed Coelen, recently named acting secretary-treasurer; Gaspar Rizzo and Fred Day.

Coaches and managers of the teams in the different categories under the association's wing also have a say in executive matters and can call a general meeting when they deem it essential.

Official delegates of KDMHA to the B.C. Amateur Hockey Association convention at Vernon this week-end are Jack O'Reilly and Ed Coelen. As many of the executive as possible are urged to take in the BCAAHA deliberations at Vernon Saturday and Sunday.

BEST SEASON YET
In briefly reviewing last season, President Krasman referred to it as the most successful to date. The association now has a large stockpile of equipment and if it can be added to as much as was last year then by next Spring the association will be in as good a position as any in the province.

He reported a bank balance of $135. Greatest single source of revenue was the association's share of the annual minor hockey jamboree—$377. Receipts from weekly minor hockey nights amounted to $130 for the year.

Spokesmen at the meeting commended the caretaker system adopted last year. Although it cost the association $25 a month to pay the young custodian, Dave Whyte, it had the effect of reducing loss of equipment, through carelessness, abuse and neglect, to a bare minimum.

Only three pairs of socks are still outstanding, according to the president.

GENEROUS TREATMENT
Unanimous appreciation was sounded for the generous ice time made available by the arena management. "One of the most favorable setups for minor hockey in the province," commented one spokesman.

One problem that has the association worried is what the future holds for the boys who have be-

MISSION ORANGE NATURALLY GOOD!

There are from 20 to 25 youths in the city and district eligible for junior hockey; it is believed. Last year some of the juniors were absorbed into the commercial league and others were allowed to play with the juvenile teams until B.C. AHA playoff time.

GLENMORE GANG RETAIN VALLEY GOLF LAURELS

[The Lefroy-Johnston Cup, symbol of the Vernon-Kelowna team championship in golf, stayed at "home" for another year, at least, when local shotsmiths downed the Vernonites on their own course Sunday.

The seven points gained by the Glenmore Gang Sunday, added to the big win on the Kelowna links in June, meant another decisive victory. Kelowna Golf and Country Club has held the award ever since it was donated four years ago by Art Lefroy of Vernon and Harold Johnston of Kelowna.

By winning the Horn-Latta Cup in the team play against Pentiction a few weeks ago, Kelowna again has backed up its claim to golfing supremacy in the Okanagan.

Pentiction has won the Horn-Latta once only since the war, according to club official Fred Williams.
